

We reviewed lesson 4 in John 13:33-35 where Jesus took the "loving others" command into more detail when He said "...Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another". He also added that we are to be "known by" our love for one another.

We said that ideally, nobody should ever have to ask you if you are a Christian. People should just know that you are a follower of Jesus simply from your actions and your general character. Jesus wants us to be known as His followers by our actions of showing God's love toward each other.

We finished up by reviewing what loving others as Jesus loves us would actually look like in our lives by reading Paul's letter in 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, where He lists the attributes of a Jesus-centered love, and replacing the words "love/it" with "I" to better see what we can do to meet those attributes in our lives.

1Corinthians 13:4-7: 4 Love is (I am) patient, love is (I am) kind. It does (I do) not envy, it does (I do) not boast, it is (I am) not proud.5 It does (I do) not dishonor others, it is (I am) not self-seeking, it is (I am) not easily angered, it keeps (I keep) no record of wrongs.6 Love does (I do) not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.7 It (I) always protects, (I) always trusts, (I) always hopes, (I) always perseveres.

We talked about each attribute and what a real Godly love can actually look like in our life. We also were reminded that 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 is NOT really a list of rules for us to follow but rather a guide to help us see how we can show God's love to others in our everyday lives.
