Bible Verse

Ephesians 4:31-32

Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

Foster Care Gifts

Don't forget to bring in gifts of personal care items for the hundreds of teens who will be without a home this Christmas.

Don't forget:

Living Word Ahwatukee 1 Youth Update for the week of 8/31/14

Hello Chris

Julie was back to teach the last lesson in her series about boundaries. We learned how to deal with somebody who breaks our boundary as well as what to do when we find we have broken somebody's boundary.

We learned that the original Hebrew word for boundary is intercession and intercession is praying for somebody else. We also studied Psalm 91 which talks about our protection against those who want to break our boundaries.

We said sometimes sin can be a boundary that we let in and don't even know it. Forgiveness is the key to rebuilding broken boundaries and bringing us back into God's protection.

We learned that we have the power to forgive sin and learned a prayer to pray for forgiving others when they sin against us and break our boundary. You must say their name in place of the blanks.

"Father I bring ______ before you. I forgive ____ of any trespass against me and ask that you forgive them. I ask you to protect ____ and me from any trap or snare of the enemy. I bind the enemy's plan and break any attachment to it. I do this in the Name of Jesus, Amen"

Don't miss next Sunday when we start our new series about Jesus & Stress.
