Bible verse of the week

John 4:7-26

⁷ When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" ⁸ (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.) ⁹ The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.) ¹⁰ Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." ¹¹ "Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?" ¹² Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?" ¹³ Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴ but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life." ¹⁵ The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep

Sundays at 9:30am

I Am He

This past Sunday, we finished up episode 8, the season 1 finale, of The Chosen TV series, "I Am He". We saw and discussed the very emotional scene where Nicodemus just couldn't bring himself to give up his family and prestigious life as a top Pharisee to accept Jesus' invitation to follow Him.

We talked about Jesus' decision to go through Samaria and His Disciples reaction to it. We discussed the relationship between the Jews and the Samaritans as well as Jesus' conversation with the Samaritan women at the well and the significance of her being the first person to whom Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah. [John 4:26].

We compared it with the shepherds being the first ones told about Jesus' birth. We said that both cases show that Jesus did not come only for the wealthy or the righteous but He came for everyone, no matter who they are or what they have done.

We also mentioned that in both cases, they excitedly ran to tell everyone all about Jesus. We said that we are to share the Good News (Gospel) with everyone as well as with the same excitement they showed.

We then had a few moments to discuss the entire series, the various parts that stood out for us, how it helps us to understand Scripture better and the context in which it was written as well as identifying with and understanding some of those who wrote it.

coming here to draw water."

¹⁶ He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back."

¹⁷ "I have no husband," she replied. Jesus said to her,

"You are right when you say you have no husband. ¹⁸ The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true." ¹⁹ "Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet. ²⁰ Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."

²¹ "Woman," Jesus replied,

"believe me, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

²² You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews.

²³ Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshippers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshippers the Father seeks.

²⁴ God is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in the Spirit and in truth." ²⁵ The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us."

²⁶ Then Jesus declared, "I, the one speaking to you—I am he."

We have now completed season 1 of The Chosen and will continue with season 2 at a later time. Now, back to our regularly scheduled lessons.

If you ever miss an episode during this series and would like to get caught up or just review, you can view both seasons for free at their website or just download The Chosen App on your phone.
